

Here for your Convenience!

For the first time in more than 30 years, Hudswell residents
have a village shop.

Hudswell Community Pub Ltd
proudly opened the “Little Shop”
this weekend in a specially fitted out room within the George and Dragon pub. The new village shop saw brisk trade in a wide range of items and our volunteers got to grips with VAT and none-VAT-able goods.

There follows a few photos from the first day of trading.

Carol (aka Arkwright) welcomes the Little Shop's first customer and oversees his purchase

Shop girl Gill asks Annie “What’s the VAT rate on these then?”

Look at all we've got!

Trade was brisk for the fresh fruit and veg.

Once word got around the village that fresh pies had arrived, a queue began to form outside.
